FROM THE EDITOR . . .

With the MTGS sponsorship of the local broadcasting of the "ANCESTORS" series, our society is being regarded by fledgling genealogists as an important source of information, and we welcome them.

There are many fundamental rules that should be followed by both experienced and novice researchers. Drawing from a list your editor has used, here is a sampling of the most basic reminders.

DO'S and DON'TS

- DO . . . consider genealogy as a social science and a vital branch of history
- DONT . . . interpret "social science" as means of raising your social status on the basis of the achievements of your ancestors
- DO . . . contact all members of your family and ask them for information regarding their history
- DONT . . . delay until they are gone
- DO . . . write down everything as it is told to you, always making sure that dates and places are included.
- DONT . . . trust your memory, and do not use scraps of paper. Keep a notebook for this purpose.
- DO . . . use primary sources whenever possible
- DONT . . . rely on secondary sources for proof unless primary sources are nonexistent
- DO . . . make a record of family traditions
- DONT . . . write traditions as facts unless you can prove them
- DO . . . get acquainted with your nearest genealogical library and learn how to use the catalog and holdings
- DONT . . . expect the librarian in charge to do your research or your thinking for you
- DO . . . form the habit of using maps, atlases, and gazetteers
- DONT . . . be misled into thinking that today's map looks anything like the one that was current at the time your ancestors occupied the land
- DO . . . have your work organized before going to the library
- DONT . . . wander aimlessly once there. Know what you are looking for, then learn how and where to find it
- DO . . . keep exact references for every item you copy. Your work will be of little value if it cannot be verified
- DONT . . . trust undocumented data from any source
- DO . . . learn to evaluate library and other source materials
- DONT . . . believe all that is printed unless valid primary sources are supplied
- DO . . . check the original/primary records. Mistakes have been made, copied and recopied by those who do not check original records.

MINUTES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT of NORTH CAROLINA and MERO DISTRICT

Abstracted and annotated by Dorothy Scott Johnson

For a complete introduction to this material please refer to Issue Number 1 of Volume X. All legal definitions are taken from Black's Law Dictionary, Fifth Edition and will hereafter be referred to as "Black's." Many abbreviations in this work are not in Black's and appear to be the original clerk's own brand of legal shorthand. Since no log exists explaining the meaning of these abbreviations, it is necessary to use them as they are written.

Unless so stated otherwise, the page numbers given here are the pages of the WPA typed material, not the original page numbers.

Genealogical Note: Court was held in Nashville at the courthouse in all cases. At the time of these minutes the Cumberland River ran on the north edge of Nashville. There were no bridges, so all crossings were done by ferry. Armed with this knowledge, you can determine how far your ancestor lived from the courthouse if he or she was a witness in a case and claimed mileage and/or ferriage. If he claimed ferriage, of course, he lived across the Cumberland River from Nashville. Four ferriages means two trips from his home over the river and back. —DSJ.

CHURCH ARCHIVES

Contributed by Carol Hughes Gipson

IT IS SOMETIMES difficult to find the information we need prior to the 1900s when the government began to require public record keeping. Fortunately, the early pioneers were a religious people and, for the most part, kept good church records which predate vital records by many years. Early Anglican parish registers for many areas of the early colonies have been published and can be found at a number of the larger libraries or archives.

In some cases records may be kept at the individual churches, or, most often, in their archives. The addresses for some of the church archives in the U. S. are:

BOOK REVIEWS

by Shirley Wilson, CG

Jett Trails West by Lois M. Jett and Ernest C. Jett. Hardback 8 1/2 x 11, 293 pp., appendix, bibliography, index, maps and photos, 1996. Purchase from Ernest C. Jett, 1613 Trail Ridge, Tyler, TX 75703. $40 postpaid.

This genealogical study traces the descendants of the immigrant Peter Jett who came to America in 1663. There is particular emphasis on the lines of John and Stephen Jett from whom the authors descend. Although footnotes are not used, there is a bibliography and the appendix contains copies of a significant number of documents. The allied family surnames included in the book are Beach, Berry, Burns, Calvit, Cherry, Cole, Curtis, Ellisor, Frazier, Havard, Isaacs, McFadin, Pruett, Reed, Searcy, Smith, St. Clair, Tanner, Tarkington, Webb, West, Winfree and Young.

The Henry numbering system, which is well established and easy to use, was selected to prepare the text. The every name index is an excellent finish to this thoroughly researched genealogical endeavor. Those with Jett roots will find it extremely helpful.

Cherokee Descendants East: An Index to the Guion Miller Applications Volume 1 by Jeff Bowen. Softback 8 1/2 x 11, 54pp., c1996 Order from Mountain Press, P. O. Box 400, Signal Mountain, TN 37377-0400. $16.50 plus $3.50 shipping and handling.

There are 348 separate reels of microfilm at the National Archives that comprise the Guion Miller applications. They were submitted between 29 August 1906 and 26 May 1909 to apply for a share of the money appropriated by Congress on 30 June 1906 for the Eastern Cherokee Indians. Far more were submitted than were approved.

The author explains the Guion Miller applications, but does not make it clear precisely what is included in this particular volume [Volume 1 of a series]. An interior page carries the title, Roll of Eastern Cherokees Entitled to Participate in the Fund Arising from the Judgment of the Court of Claims of May 28, 1906. There is also a supplemental role for the Eastern Cherokee dated 5 January 1910.

If this is in fact a complete index, then it is most interesting to note how few claims were actually accepted. The names of the applicants and their children are listed alphabetically. The index provides his or her application number so that a copy of the original can be ordered.

The Ancestors and Descendants of George Wylie Crowder and Florence Nevada Maxwell compiled by Grace E. Crowder. Hardback 8 1/2 x 11, 282 pp., c1996, complete name index. Order from Ernest L. Ittner, Jr., Route 1, Box 80A, Noel, MO 64854. $34.

The Crowders were early settlers in Virginia and Barthomew Crowder is one of the central characters in this family history. Descendants migrated to Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Missouri among others. Tennesseans will find the section on the Maxwell family of Hardeman County, Tennessee of particular interest. The book also includes significant information on the families of Timmons, Endsley, Casteel, White, Bristow, Richards, Miles, Powell, Peyton, James, McNeely, Regester, Hoopes, Williamson and Smedley.

Charts and occasional photographs enhance the footnoted text. The publication is divided into two parts. Be aware of the fact that the index to Part I is in the center of the book.

Rhea County, Tennessee Tax Lists 1832-1834, and County Court Minutes, Volume D:1829-1834 by Carol Wells. Softback 5 1/4 x 8 1/4, 168 pp. c1996. Order from Heritage Books, Inc., 1540-E Pointer Ridge Pl., Suite 300, Bowie, MD 20716. $20 plus $4 shipping.

Tax lists and court minutes are two very important genealogical sources. It's difficult to avoid paying taxes, so even if your man was in the county for just a short period of time he may be on the tax lists.

The county courts in Tennessee were charged with overseeing the care of indigents, orphans, the insane, apprentices and others needing public assistance. They issued licenses and appointed road juries. Deeds, wills and other documents were proven in court and ordered to be recorded. Reading the court minutes should enlighten you about the day to day business of the county which will hopefully include information on your ancestor.

This book has an everyname index and waterways are also indexed. The print is small, but it's far easier to read than those court minutes. ■

SANDERS FAMILY BIBLE

Contributed by Jane Hembree Crowley

On Saturday, August 10, 1996 I traveled to Shelbyville, TN in Bedford County with my husband, Mickie Crowley to attend the Sanders/Curtis Family Reunion. After the reunion, we visited in the home of Eva Curtis Sanders, widow of Yancie Edgar Sanders, and were shown a 125-year-old Bible which Eva believes to have belonged to Minerva Greenwood Sanders, second wife of Morgan Hulette Sanders, who was the father of Eva's late husband. According to Eva, she received the Bible from Flora Maybell Sanders, a sister to Eva's late husband. Flora died October 13, 1982, so Eva had the Bible for at least 14 years. Eva was most gracious and helpful in showing us the Bible and in spending several hours helping decipher the handwritten entries.

According to the New Testament title page, the Bible was published in New York by the American Bible Society in 1871. There was no title page before the Old Testament. Many pages of the Bible were separated from the spine and were loose. Much of the writing was faded and the pages quite frayed and yellow and perhaps water or dampness marked or damaged. The edges of many of the pages were decayed away and missing. Some of the writing had been done in pencil, some in brown ink, and some in blue ink, but the handwriting all appeared to be quite old and perhaps all done by the same person or by only a few people. Written entries appeared on the inside of the front and back covers of the Bible. Most of the entries were on unprinted pages in the center section between the Old and the New Testaments. A few entries were simply written along the margin of a page within the Bible. The following is a transcription, to the best of my and Eva's ability, of the information shown in the handwritten entries in the Bible. Many of the words were misspelled, such as 'borned' and months of the year. I have corrected only the months spelling. In addition, the penmanship was rather large and scrawling, and the physically deteriorated nature of the ink rendered many of the entries nearly illegible, so what follows represents our best effort to decipher the entries. Notes regarding pagination and comments regarding unreadable, unclear or uncertain words are in parentheses. Some information, such as a birth or death date, appear more than once in the entries.—JHC

Florence is believed to be a daughter of Morgan Hulet and LizzieBith E. Poe Sanders.)

However, at the top of the next page, which is the title page for the New Testament, is written in a brighter blue ink, just the date:) May the 12th, 1889 (followed by) Knob Creek Sunday (I assume that this date applies to 'Knob Creek Sunday' and not to 'Filey...' since May 12, 1889 was indeed a Sunday. There are several unnamed cemeteries in the Knob Creek area in northeast Jackson Co., TN. Filey is believed to be a daughter of Morgan Hulet and LizzieBith E. Poe Sanders.)

Five-Star Mother Dies, Was Baptist Leader

Mrs. O. L. Hailey Widely Known for Writings

Mrs. Nora Graves Hailey, 75, wife of Dr. O. L. Hailey, who is secretary of the American Baptist Theological Seminary and a former pastor of Eastland Baptist Church, died at the home of her son, Dr. David W. Hailey, 1615 Seventeenth Avenue, South, shortly before 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Hailey was widely known among Baptists for many years under the pen name of "Aunt Nora," took an active part in church affairs for half century and during the World War was a five-star mother.

She was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Graves and was born in Nashville in 1857. She was reared here and in Memphis. during the Civil War she was taken to a Mississippi plantation for safety. She was married to Dr. Hailey in 1885 and until 1919 she had resided in several states, most of her residence being in Texas. For the past fourteen years she had lived in Nashville.

While still a young girl she became editor of "The Young South," a department of the periodical edited by her father at the time under the name of the Tennessee Baptist, now known as the Baptist and Reflector. She conducted the column under the name of "Aunt Nora."

While editing this department, Mrs. Hailey was also instrumental in establishing missions in Mexico and Cuba by her interest and sponsorship of this work.

She was president of the Mary Sharp College club in Nashville, the club being composed of alumnae and their daughters. An uncle, Dr. Z. C. Graves, was the first president of the well-known institution which was located at Winchester.

With five sons in service during the World War she was designated a five-star mother.

Besides her husband, the five sons, James, Orren L., Jr., and George Norman Hailey, all of Dallas, Texas, Robert W. and Dr. David W. Hailey of Nashville; a brother, W. C. Graves of Memphis, and a sister, Mrs. Lou T. Woods of Dallas, survive her.

Mrs. Emma House Mullins.

Mrs. Emma House Mullins died very suddenly at their home in Fountain Head, Tenn., Sept. 9, 1933, she was in failing health but had only a few days before her death returned from a visit to her daughter, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Dyche of London, Ky., she was married to Hiram Robert Fish in 1880, and who died in 1901.

Of that union the following survive: John House Fish of 906 E. Blackford, Evansville, Ind., and Mrs. Marguerite Addie Dyche of London, Ky., two sons preceded her, Robert Glenn Fish in 1890, age 2 months, and Minor Fleetwood Fish, on Dec. 25, 1906, age 23 years. she married Reuben Benjamin Mullins, May 31, 1903, of that union Benjamin survives: also survived by eleven grandchildren and one grand child, and a brother, Fleetwood House of Pinion, N. Mexico. She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Portland, Tenn., funeral service was held at the M. E. church at Fountain Head, conducted by Bro. Whaley of Nashville, burial was at Old Brush Cemetery.

Mrs. Carrie Dye

Mrs. Carrie Dye was born September 6, 1875, in Sumner County, Tenn., and died at her home November 10, 1936, at Indianapolis, Ind.

She was brought here and laid to rest at Old Fountain Head cemetery. Funeral services were conducted at the church of Christ.

Mrs. Dye was well known in this community and was loved by her many friends.

She leaves to mourn her death four daughters, Mrs. Earl Perdue of this place, Mrs. Fred Julian, Mrs. Elmore Brown, Mrs. Edward Strong of Indianapolis, Ind., two brothers, Mr. Brodie and Ollie McNeely, of Indianapolis, one sister, Mrs. Carlos Wattwood of this place and six grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

George Washington Beasley, Sr.

It was on March 16, 1921, when one of the darkest clouds that ever overshadowed our lives, gathered thick and fast, and lowering, over the once bright and happy home of G.W. Beasley, Sr., and as the heavy clouds surrounded that home, death the black camel knelt, at the gate, and sending the death angle into that home, stooped down, and hovering over the form of our aged father clipped the brittle thread of life, and his sweet spirit launched out on that old vessel, which had landed many a thousand, and our precious father's soul was wafted on angel wings to his immortal home.

He was born March 8, 1834, thus making him at the time of his death 87 years and 8 days of age. Few people have lived to such a ripe old age.

He was married January 20, 1859 to Miss Martha Neely, who twenty years ago preceded him to that golden city. To this union ten children were born, nine of whom survive him, J.J. and W.B. Beasley of Christiana, M.H. Beasley of Murfreesboro, Mrs. Emma Dean Wiggs and Mrs. J.W. Tucker of Nashville, Mrs. E.S. Miller, Mrs. J.D. Adcock and Misses Lou and Sue Mat Beasley, all of Christiana.

It can truly be said of him that he was a true soldier, having served his country gallantly during the Civil War.

He professed faith in Christ and united with the Baptist Church at this place at the age of 45 years and lived a true soldier of the cross until the Lord said, "it is enough, come up higher".

He leaves one aged sister, Mrs. Lula Taliaferro of Lenoir City, East Tennessee, nine children, a number of grandchildren, a multitude of relatives, an innumerable host of friends to mourn his loss. But our loss is his eternal gain. Would say to all of us, let's not weep for he has reached that Golden City just beyond the swelling tide. Yes, there was for him a welcome and the gates were opened wide.

He was a devoted husband, an affectionate father, a loving brother, a kind neighbor, and loved by all who knew him.

Funeral services were conducted from the Baptist Church March 18th by Rev. Ogles of Murfreesboro, and Rev. Bruce of Bell Buckle, after which the body was tenderly laid to rest in the Christiana Cemetery.

Puppy Bite is Fatal to Portland Woman

Mrs. Lola Baskerville Dies of Hydrophobia.

Portland, Tennessee, Sept. 3. (Spl) —

Mrs. Lola Baskerville, 48, wife of Dr. John Baskerville, died at her home three miles north of Portland, this morning of hydrophobia, contracted from a six weeks' old puppy.

One morning about three weeks ago, it is said, Mrs. Baskerville whipped the puppy for worrying a chicken, and was nipped in the hand, but paid the wound no mind, not suspecting the dog of rabies infection.

Sunday she fell ill, and though three doctors consulted on her case little relief was gained.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at the family graveyard, followed by burial there.

Aged Farmer Died Suddenly

James Robert Canida, age 68, a well known and respected farmer of near Mitchellville, died suddenly of heart trouble, Jan. 4th at 3 P.M. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Lucy Groves Canida, two sons Herman and Homer, three daughters Mrs. W. I. Hinton, Mrs. H. J. Garrett all of Mitchellville and Mrs. C. E. Winham of Portland, also three brothers and ten grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives to mourn his untimely death.

Mr. Canida was born and has spent practically all his life in Sumter [sic] County, politically he was a democrat but was not narrow or sectarian. Religiously he was a General Baptist but not a fanatic. But he lived honestly to the traditions of his race, he loved honesty as well as he hated deceit.

No feeble pen could write an obituary half so eloquent and impressive as his daily works have inscribed upon the hearts and minds of those who knew this man. His death harkens to the words of Ingersoll "The record of a generous life runs like a vine around the memory of our dead and every sweet, unselfish act is now a perfumed flower."

Funeral services were conducted by Bro. Duncan, of Portland and burial was made at the Old Ebenezer Cemetery.

THE JOURNAL

Members of the Society are encouraged to submit unpublished primary source material of Middle Tennessee genealogical and historical importance to be considered for inclusion in the Journal. The data can be in the form of county records, cemetery accounts, Bible records, journals/diaries, "how-to" articles of broad interest, or historical facts. Family histories that are well documented and pertain to the Middle Tennessee area will also be considered. Photographs, drawings, maps, and other illustrations can accompany the article and are encouraged. Complete and specific sources in the proper form should be used in the submitted material.

Please make sure handwriting is legible or the document is typed. Include your name, address, and phone number on the manuscript. If using a computer, save the file in ASCII [.TXT], WordPerfect 5.1 word processing format, or Rich Text Format [.RTF] and enclose the disk, along with a hard copy of the article. References/footnotes should be indicated as such and placed at the end of the article. The Editor will arrange for the placement of footnotes or end notes in the final layout. Material should be limited to a published length of approximately five typeset pages.

Journal articles are to be sent directly to the Journal Editor at the address given under Journal Submissions on this page. The right to edit material for presentation, grammar, and form is reserved by the editorial staff, and all material submitted becomes the property of the Society. It is the submitter's responsibility to secure permission from any person or company who may own the original record or publication rights. The Society or Editor cannot assume responsibility for errors of fact or infringement of copyrights by contributors. The opinions expressed in the Journal are of the individual contributors and do not necessarily reflect the opinions of the Society or the editorial staff.
